

Outstanding PE and Sport for your school

In September 2014, Ofsted announced that it will continue to invest in enhancing the benefit of Physical Education and sport in schools. Importantly, those schools will need to demonstrate how effectively the funding has been used. This will involve some key measuring, e.g.

- The impact of school sport partnerships in maximising participation and increasing regular competition.
- Contribution to pupils' personal development and well-being.
- Achievement throughout PE lessons.
- Changing of negative attitudes to positive towards learning.
- Regular and increased participation during competitive lessons and enrichment activities.

We can support your school to achieve excellence in its' sport & PE provision. Our support helps you to avoid a number of common weaknesses found by Ofsted in primary PE e.g the lack of opportunities for pupils to be part of school sport competition and teachers' limited subject knowledge (Ofsted, 2013, p5).
