

Little Joe's not so little anymore...

...In fact it's his 5th birthday on the 13th September and he's off to school in a few weeks as well, two monumental milestones in any young man's life. Therefore to celebrate these two very special occasions we're going to throw a little party at his favourite beach in Wells.

It would be great if you and your significant others could join us at Cockler's Cove beach hut on Saturday 13th September from 10.00am. There will be lots of games and activities for the kids to enjoy, and of course the now legendary 'Joseph Miles Crabbing Cup'.

Please note: we don't have access to the beach hut until 10.00, but the car park at Wells can get very busy, so the earlier you can get there the better...

Food and refreshments

We will be providing refreshments and snacks for the children, but we recommend you bring along a picnic as well. There will of course be a piece of cake for everyone and maybe a glass of fizz for the adults too.

Times and location

The fun starts from 10.00am and we recommend you arrive early as the car park can get full... the alternative is the Wells' miniature train!!!

Our beach hut's name is Cocklers Cove and is situated approximately half way down the row of huts on Wells beach.

Getting to Wells

From Norwich head out on the Drayton road towards Fakenham, from there travel on the A148 taking the second exit onto the B1105 sign posted Wells. The beach car park is situated at bottom of a long straight road running parallel with the harbour and miniature railway.

What if it rains?

Ever the optimists, we're confident that the British weather will be kind to us but, we will have a contingency in place should the heavens open.

What next?

Please RSVP to debbiemiles77@hotmail.com by Saturday 30th August

We look forward to seeing you there!!!
